

Berry Insurance Brokers
Quick Quote Assumptions - Motor

- You are a UK resident, the registered keeper and legal owner of the vehicle which is to be insured.
- Your vehicle is UK registered, road legal and normally kept in the UK, excluding Northern Ireland.
- You and any driver to be covered by this insurance must hold a current, valid driving licence to drive in the UK and are driving within the terms of their licence.
- No driver to be covered by this insurance has had any criminal convictions or pending prosecutions relating to fraud, robbery, theft or handling stolen goods during the past five years.
- No driver to be covered by this insurance has ever had their previous insurance cancelled, declined or renewal refused by another insurer.
- Vehicles to be covered under this insurance have had no changes/modifications made to the manufacturer's original specification, including optional extras, other than being adapted solely to cater for any physical disability.
- The vehicle is not an import not normally sold in this country.
- You and any additional driver to be covered by this insurance do not have any illness or disability which requires the DVLA to be notified.
- The No Claims Discount has been earned by the you, is not being used elsewhere on any other vehicle and is available for use on the vehicle being insured.